Unless stated otherwise, the seat height provided is without the addition of a cushion. The measurements and weights provided are in cm and kg. Minor deviations in dimensions and colour are possible.

For parasols with a tilt mechanism and/or being used in wind-exposed locations, we recommend choosing a base one size bigger.

For round parasol models, the actual diameter is slightly less than the measurement provided. Measurements are taken from strut to strut, which results in slight deviations.

Quick delivery programme

How it works

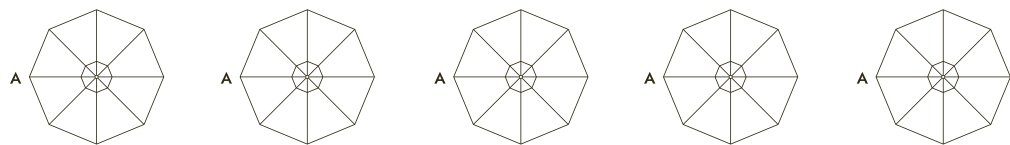

- > Dispatch within 5 working days of order confirmation
- > Delivery exclusively to the company headquarters or warehouse of the authorised Weishäupl retailer
- > Guaranteed availability during high season from 1 March to 30 September
- > Orders are limited to 3 items per order/commission*
- > Changes to the configuration of the quick-delivery parasols are not possible*
- > Compatible accessories like Basic bases, ground sleeves and protective covers are also available

Quick-delivery parasols are stock items and are generally confirmed in a separate order. Please note that shipping costs may apply.

If the customer requests shipment of quick-delivery parasols together with other products manufactured to order, delivery within 5 working days cannot be guaranteed.

*For larger orders and/or different configurations, please select from our standard delivery programme. During high season, shipment of our standard-delivery products may take longer than usual.
